

A New Departure on the Comstock.

The Post announces by authority that at a recent meeting of the Presidents of the Comstock mining companies under control of the bonanza firm, measures for alleviating the situation were discussed, and are likely to be speedily acted upon. A plan to reduce expenses at the mines without curtailing important exploration work was under consideration. If it is carried out assessments will in future be smaller and will be levied at less frequent intervals. The assessments have been very heavy the last two years, owing to the great amount of expensive dead work necessary to be done before new levels could be reached, drained and ventilated; having now gained access to ground which it will take fully a year and a half to explore, with drifts and crosscuts, expenses can be made much lighter. Senator Fair has personally taken the matter in hand, and we are assured a more economical movement will be instituted at once.

Field and Sawyer Denounced.

Justice, the official organ of the New York Anti-Monopolists, furiously assails Judges Field and Sawyer in an editorial, surrounded by a black border, for what it calls the "latest and most dangerous move of corporate aggression," meaning thereby the decisions in the tax suits of San Mateo county, California, vs. the Southern Pacific Railroad. After declaring that Californians have long ceased to seek justice in courts in which railroads are concerned, Justice winds up by demanding an appeal from this decision to the Supreme Court, and says: "Corporation managers, corporation politicians, corporation judges, beware how you press the people further. They are fifty million strong. In morals, in ability, in numbers, in everything but money you are very weak. There are yet a few faithful left to defy your bribes, your enmity and your power."

De Long's Report.

DeLong's report, found beside his dead body, has been made public. It makes 30,000 words, in details and incidents of the cruise from the departure from San Francisco in 1879, to January, 1881. Its principal feature is the elaborate account of De Long's views in regard to the expedition. He considered it good judgment to head for Wrangel Land. His idea was to adopt that land as a support for the first winter's campaign. He embodies the story of how the land was sighted and how he expected to reach it. He graphically describes how on the next day the Jeanette became beset in the ice, never again to be relieved, and says the party was compelled to make a virtue of necessity and stay where they were.

Newspaper Consolidation.

Arrangements have been completed for the consolidation of the Commercial and Gazette, newspapers of Cincinnati, and to publish a daily under the name of the Commercial-Gazette newspaper. It will be issued as soon as mechanical preparations can be made. Both Smith of the Gazette and Halstead of the Commercial will be in the management of the new paper, and will be assisted by such talent from the two papers as is needed to make the new enterprise successful. The paper will be Republican in politics.

A writer in the St. Louis Republican seems disposed to think that because Clay, Calhoun, Chase, Clinton, Crittenden, Clayton, Cass, Church, Cameron, Conkling, Colfax, and several other gentlemen of more or less estimable character whose names began with C, have failed to attain the Presidency there is no hope for Grover Cleveland. But remembering Colfax, Clinton and Calhoun, he does not regard his chance of obtaining the Vice Presidency as hopeless.

Lambert Mollinelli formerly of Austin, but of late years a resident of Eureka, has succeeded to the editorial chair of the Eureka Leader, in place of W. L. Marsden, who has gone to Carson to attend to his duties as member of the Legislature. Mollinelli is a wide-awake young man, talented and brave, and should meet with excellent success in his new position.

In 1868 the present Governor-elect of Kansas was the reputed author of the plank in the Democratic platform of that State opposing negro suffrage. Next year when he wants to draw his salary as the Democratic Governor, he will have to get the warrant signed by a colored man who was elected Auditor of State by the Republicans last November.

Money orders may now be exchanged between the United States and Belgium.

ROOM FOR THE COMING MILLIONS.

Mr. R. Giffen, a distinguished English statistician, having ventured the prediction, based upon the natural rate of increase as established by the records of the people who are occupying the most thickly settled portions of the earth, that in the near future America may be fully peopled, and that Europe, with emigration stopped, may be filled with masses driven to dangerous discontent, the London Spectator undertakes to answer him and show that the habitable portions of the earth will still contain abundance of room a century hence. Though over-population is an admitted evil, the Chinese have only been driven by it to abnormal industry and thrift, and there is neither social discord nor discontent. We know very little of the true law of the expansion of population. In India there has been an increase out of all proportion to the means of subsistence; in Ireland the increase continued till subsistence failed, and then relief was found in emigration, while the Jews, a splendidly healthy and well fed people, have made no perceptible increase at all. Even the rapid increase of the two branches of the Teutons, which threatens to overwhelm all other white peoples, is novel and did not occur during the long peace of England under the house of Tudor. Though Mr. Giffen predicts that North America may in 1882 contain 800,000,000 people, it may not in reality exceed 200,000,000, without any repressing causes in operation such as already known. The emigration from Europe may stop, the age of marriage may be thrown back from social causes, or the rate of increase may change without the intervention of new causes of mortality. It is known that in Scandinavia, between 1700 and 1800, the increase stopped altogether without any perceptible emigration. The facts seem to bear out Herbert Spencer's opinion that culture diminishes population, this being shown in New England where the educated classes increase very slowly.

But for thirty years at least, the rush of emigration from Europe westward need not cease for want of room. Though a historian of some mark predicted in the columns of the Spectator fifteen years ago that in twenty years America would prohibit immigration, the movement continues with accelerating force, until Sweden is threatened with depopulation and even Ireland is losing by comparison. In 1840 that island contained one-third the population of the United Kingdom; now it holds only a seventh, and at the next census will probably contain only a tenth. Britain increases, however, and so does Germany, while the absorbing power of the United States shows no sign of diminution. The average population is only 35 to the square mile. The State of New York, with its 5,000,000 is still full of ancient forests, and could support 30,000,000 if settled as thickly as Suffolk. There is no sign of exhaustion except in New England where the soil is worn out, nor is there any cry in the West against further immigration, which will be the first premature indication that the land is full. As for the huge Canadian Dominion, it can hold 50,000,000 in comfort without neighbors ever visiting each other on foot, and its great lamentation is that people do not come fast enough. British Columbia has been visited by the Marquis of Lorne, who finds it a delightful agricultural country capable of supporting 20,000,000 where are now 20,000. And when these North American districts are full, there is Australia with room for 40,000,000, and South America with room in Brazil alone for all Europe, and with its vast expanses yet unexplored. In these countries they are forming new nations which will be in the main Teutonic, will be in some form or another Christian, and will speak English. The Spectator hardly knows why our race should conquer, for sympathy with the alien is not among its qualities. But only the Jew resists the Englishman; even the Irishman who tells the English that they are the most hateful people on the earth, will settle nowhere save where the population is essentially British; while the German, who scolds the same people daily, the instant he finds a British community to settle in, forsakes his language, sloughs off caste, and becomes the most contented, industrious and loyal of citizens. The English and German speaking races, at least, have a sufficient heritage before them, and those who remain behind will not consent to starve. The prediction is ventured that emigration will soon reduce Britain to 20,000,000 of people, and this of itself will be a check upon emigration. That number of people will not throw off the swarms that now live out from among thirty-five millions.

The proceeds of the recent sale of articles accumulated at the Dead Letter Office amounts to $4,497, which sum has been deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the Postoffice Department.

The cost of the New York City government for 1883 is estimated at $28,593,535. This year it cost $27,412,831.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

[Times-Review, Dec. 29.]

At the approaching session of the Legislature the opportunity will be offered the people of Nevada, through their representatives, to determine whether the State with its ample means shall fully endow and provide for collegiate education within our own borders, or shall by ignoring the various land grants and donations from Congress, oblige parents and guardians to send their children to neighboring or distant States for instruction. We know of three from this portion of Elko county who were sent to California schools; one to Benicia, one to Oakland and another to San Mateo. No less than fifty young men are sent from the counties of Ormsby and Storey to schools above mentioned, and why? We answer, because the members of our Legislative bodies are in themselves a pack of internal ignoramuses, and think the cutting down of some paltry salaries is more important than making provisions for a home instruction for the young men and women of the State. The great trouble has been and still remains that the western portion of the State has, and still does, hold an enmity to Elko county, because, through the skillful management of Hon. H. C. Street while a member of the Legislature, it was successful in locating the State University at the above named place. In no instance have representatives from the two great counties, Ormsby and Storey, ever exhibited a friendly feeling toward that institution. The writer of this article remembers the almost getting on his knees before the members from Virginia City and asking them to appropriate a sufficient sum to construct a dormitory and decently improve the grounds surrounding the University. It was a hard pull, but in the room of the Sergeant-at-Arms an agreement was made that the bill was to be passed under a suspension of the rules, and such was the vote. The school, for it can be called nothing else, is conducted by a competent gentleman, so far as the regents have settled upon the required ability, but when the magnificent endowment from the General Government—its various professorships created, and the condition of the institute as a mere academy or primary school is considered, it must be considered and called a neglected institution—a failure. We have sent members to the Legislature from this county who now and will occupy their seats, who should not only see that the appropriations heretofore made shall not be withdrawn, but that additional provisions should be made to fully organize the Institute, and utilize the money which Congress has so generously placed in the power of the State.

There is high authority for stating that the Galveston, Houston and Henderson Railway, running between Galveston and Houston, will, on January 1st, pass into the hands of Jay Gould, and be operated as part of the Gould Southwestern system, which now has a mileage of 589 miles, and two or three short branches on the Iron Mountain Road, now building, will give it 600 miles. The purchase of the Galveston, Houston and Henderson Line gives Gould's system a gulf and coast outlet of its own, and will furnish the management great facilities for hauling cotton and other Texas products destined for foreign countries.

Private advices received in San Francisco announce that the British Consul in that city, W. Lane Booker, has been promoted by Her Majesty's government to the position of Consul-General of America. This will necessitate the removal of Mr. Booker to New York, where he will occupy the place made vacant by Consul-General Archibald.

A number of Seminary folks had a picnic in the gymnasium room yesterday. It was the original intention to have it up the river, but the snow storm caused the change.

Several attorneys and land agents have been debarred from practicing before the Interior Department and the local land offices for connection with the recent Dakota land frauds.

FINE SCENERY.

The Attractions on the New Section of the Carson and Colorado.

The Virginia Enterprise lately published an interesting description of the Carson and Colorado Railroad, and of the new region which has just been reached by the road in its progress toward the Colorado river. It says the scenery of all this region is picturesque and grand. While up toward Oregon the Sierra Nevada range spreads and flattens out showing peaks of but insignificant height, in going southward the range constantly rises and grand peaks of bare granite are sent up to an immense altitude.

In places where have been formed at the sides of these peaks gorges of immense depth, the view is stupendous and aweinspiring. In places are groups of these peaks, towering and toppling above the almost bottomless canyons that wind between. While at some points all is stern and rugged, at others the savageness is softened by groves, springs and grassy vales.

Those who are curious in regard to ancient craters, lava flows and the distorting action of volcanic upheavals will find in a great number of places food for days of investigation and study. In the vicinity of Bishop Creek and at other points on the west side of Owen's Valley will be found fields of lava of all kinds and colors and many craters of extinct volcanoes. In places, too, winding down from the peaks of the mountains will be found solidified rivers of obsidian or mountain glass. This is to be obtained not only in great transparent blocks, but also in many of the finer and more beautiful forms which the mineral assumes, which forms have names of their own, particularly when they come into the hands of the jeweler after having been wrought upon by the lapidary. Arrow heads and many other relics of Indian art may be picked up in all this section of country. There are also to be seen in places hot springs, mud volcanoes, and many other natural curiosities.

Next Summer this new and wonderful region will be of easy access to the tourist, as well as to the prospector and business man, and a vast deal of travel will no doubt be seen in that direction.
Already not a few prospectors and capitalists are pushing through to the newly-opened country, of which we have given a hasty sketch.

Don't Want to be Consolidated.

The recent movement by prominent militia officers of this city, says the Virginia Chronicle, relative to the consolidation of the various companies, has caused quite a stir among the members of some of the companies who do not wish to be consolidated. The Washington Guard had an informal meeting last evening, and instructed the Captain to report to the meeting of officers, to be held Sunday evening, that they would not consolidate. The Washingtons claim that they have 55 men on the roll, and also have a band. The impression among the members is that the companies to be retained will not include the Washington Guard, but that the Nationals, the Emmets and Battery A are to be the favored ones. The Wash-ingtons say they will form a rifle club if disbanded.

Change of Base.

With this week's issue, the Lander Free Press closes its career in Battle Mountain and removes its base of operations to Elko, where it will hereafter be published weekly—the first issue appearing next Friday. This change of location will occasion no change in the politics of the paper; it will remain Republican as heretofore. We sincerely wish Brother Sprone increased prosperity and a brilliant future in his new field of operations.

The Old Black Boys.

A New York dispatch informs us that the San Francisco Minstrels will play a four weeks engagement at the Bush street Theater, San Francisco, beginning with the first week in May. They will then play in the larger cities on their return East. We must have them here, sure. We want to look at the bread-traps of Charley Backus and Birch "jes' once mo'."

Outgoers and Incomers.

The outgoing county officials are packing up, preparatory to leaving the comfortable offices which they have filled during the past two years. Their successors are also busy in preparing themselves for their new business, and looking-over the property of which they will be the custodians until January, 1885.

Protect the Pipes.

About this time keep your water pipes well wrapped, boxed or otherwise properly secured against the heavy night frosts. It is much easier to keep a pipe from freezing than to thaw it out after it is frozen.

"The Beautiful."

At 1 a. m. yesterday a snow storm set in over this region, and the gentle flakes have been falling almost ever since.
There may will be good sleighing in a day or two.

PRIZE BOOKS FOR SUBSCRIBERS.

The Weekly Journal's Clubbing Arrangement with the Cincinnati Commercial.

Having made arrangements to club the WEEKLY JOURNAL with the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial, we announce that we will furnish the WEEKLY JOURNAL and the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial, a large 8-page, 56-column family newspaper, printed from large, clear new type, and furnishes more reading matter for the money than any other newspaper in the county, the issue of each week containing over twenty-two square feet of printed matter, and is not surpassed for news, business reports, literary and select reading, one year for $3 50, and will give as a free prize to each yearly subscriber under this clubbing arrangement any one book he may select from the following famous works —postage paid and free of all cost—the books being unabridged, beautifully printed on good paper in paper covers: Tennyson's Poems; The Arabian Nights;
The Narrative of the Jeannette Arctic Expedition, by Lieut. Danenhower; The Mill on the Floss, by George Eliot; Wood's Natural History for Boys, (300 illustrations); East Lynne, by Mrs.
Henry Wood; Vennor's Almanac for 1883; The Swiss Family Robinson; A Treatise on the Horse and His Diseases, by Dr. B. J. Kendall; The Woman in White, by Wilkie Collins; History of the Kingdom of Ireland; Waverly, by Sir Walter Scott; A Brave Lady, by Miss Mulock; The Bible Dictionary; Lady Audley's Secret, by Miss Braddon.

It will be noticed that our selection of prizes covers an extraordinary range and variety of the brightest and best books.

Free specimen copies of the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial may be obtained by addressing M. Halstead & Co., Proprietors Commercial, Cincinnati, Ohio, and free specimen copies of the JOURNAL can be obtained by addressing C. C. Powning, Proprietor JOURNAL, copies.

Cash System! Cash System!

Since my first announcement that I proposed to place my business on a cash basis on Jan. 1st, I have received much encouragement from many of my customers. They appreciate the fact that it is a fair system, as all pay cash or its equivalent; they do not, as under the credit system, have charged to them the loss suffered by some debtor who has "skipped" his account, and frequently the country. Also the cash system has harmonious influences, there being fewer circumstances to create difficulties between the dealer and his customers, such as dunning, refusal of credit, sueing, etc. I have in reserve a good proof that it pays to buy for cash. It is a price list, which will be out January 1, 1883. Send or call for one.

Respectfully,
JERRY SCHOOLING.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the little sufferer at once—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best feminine physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold every where. 25 cents a bottle.

A Delicious Appetizer.

That ensures digestion and enjoyment of food; a tonic that brings strength to the weak and rest to the nervous; a harmless diarrhoea cure that don't constipate—just what every family needs—Parker's Ginger Tonic.

Dyspepsia, liver complaint, and kindred affections. For treatise giving successful self-treatment address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

The purity and elegant perfume of Parker's Hair Balsam explain the popularity of this reliable restorative.

Advertising Medium.

The advertising columns of the JOURNAL afford an excellent opportunity to our readers to study out where purchases of all kinds can be made on the most advantageous terms. All classes of goods can there be found advertised from a suit of clothes or nice silk dress to the daintiest ornament in the jewelry line.
The JOURNAL reaches nearly every family as well as business house in the county, and, therefore, advertisers seek its columns that the public may know what they have for sale

ANNUAL MEETING.

THE REGULAR ANNUAL MEETING OF the stockholders of the First National Bank of Reno, Nevada, will be held at the office of the Bank, in Reno, Nevada, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1883, for the election of Directors for the ensuing year and such other business as may come before the meeting.

Reno, December 14, 1882-3.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption.
BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always gives perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c. a box everywhere.
